Leading issues in global political economy

Professor Robert Wade (London School of Economics)
Fevereiro 27 a Março 15 das 9h00 às 13h00

· The contributions of economists to the Great Crash and Long Slump. Economics profession and its feedback mechanisms, including ethics

Robert Wade, “Economists’ contributions to the Second Great Depression”, in draft.

Steve Keen, Debunking Economics, Zed Books, 2011, chp 1 “Predicting the ‘unpredictable’”, pp.1-6, chp 2 “No more Mr Nice Guy”, pp.7-35

· The mystery of US industrial policy: the developmental state in disguise

Edward Luce, “America reassembles industrial policy”, ft.com, 8 April 2012.

· Multipolarity without multilateralism: governance reform at the G20, IMF and World Bank

Income inequality: why has it been on the sidelines of public policy for so long?

Development and Sustainability